Melanie LaDue, Founder & Editor

I'm a momma to a little girl born in 2010. I stay at home with her during the day and I'm a part-time trainer at the Apple Store at night. I married my high school sweetheart, but we parted ways in high school, reconnected 17 years later, and got married! He's a VW car fixer upper, I'm a crafter! We're living on a small one-income budget and it's tough!

On RTSTH, I share simple crafts and recipes that can be done on a budget, with very little time.

HOW WE CAN WORK TOGETHER

I am currently scheduling the following on RTSTH, provided they fit with my readership.
